Random Acts Of Kindness (ROAK) Month

So Miss Gingerich, what gave you the idea for ROAK month?

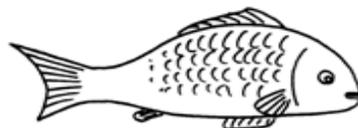

During the month of January, the entire school participated in what was known as ROAK or Random Acts of Kindness. Students were challenged to reach out to people around them with kindness for the purpose of showing God's love. Though I was the one who implemented ROAK for the older students, I was not the one who first had the idea. It all began with a Moms-in-Touch meeting where God laid it on Starla Schwartz's heart that we should do an entire month with a focus on loving people. Students participated in activities such as leaving money at a car wash, prayer walking at the mall, making supper for their family, sharing the gospel with a stranger, or simply wearing a smile when they felt grouchy. Students really seemed to take the bull by the horns, and some of them even did things that were not on the given list. I think it was a good activity because ironically, when we love as Christ loved, we then get to experience a deeper love for Him.

Pathway Tournament

This year's Pathway Basketball Tournament was interesting. There were seven teams and all of them were good. The first team we played was DMI and we lost by a little bit. We had a fun game and played our hardest. Then we played our rivals, Lighthouse, and lost in a very close game. This game brought new light for the games ahead. Saturday we played Metro and we won by a good margin. In this game, Hogan scored his first points on varsity. Our last game of the day was played against Omaha Road Runners and we barely won. After this, the 3rd and 4th place game was won by Lighthouse and they played Hardin County. At the end of the day the championship game was played by DMI and the Omaha Lightning. DMI showed their colors and destroyed the Lightning. After the championship game was done, the awards were given out and two players from DMI and Lightning were chosen for All-Tournament Team. Our very own Blake Schwartz also made All-Tournament. Even though we didn't win the championship, we still played hard and had fun.
